

Providing equitable access to physical therapy services for all Alaskans

WHO WE ARE

The APTA Alaska Physical Therapy Community Clinic is a pro-bono (free) physical therapy clinic. Our mission is to provide quality physical therapy services to all individuals in Alaska, regardless of financial limitations, in order to improve the health and wellness of our Alaska community.

We are a non-profit organization [501(c)(3)] that is 100% volunteer-based.

WHO WE HELP

The APTA Alaska Physical Therapy Community Clinic strives to provide physical therapy services to all underinsured and uninsured individuals.

We unfortunately are unable to treat individuals who are actively insured by any of the following: Medicare, Medicaid, VA, TRICARE, Indian Health Service

LOCATION + HOURS

The APTA Alaska Physical Therapy Community Clinic is hosted by an outpatient physical therapy clinic within the Wasilla area, with the host site subject to change. To find the current host clinic site, please visit our website at: www.aptaalaska.org/community-clinic/ or scan the QR code below.

The APTA Alaska Physical Therapy Community Clinic is open year-round on Saturdays, with general appointment availability from 9am to 1pm.

CONTACT US

If you are interested in scheduling an appointment, have questions, or would like to make a donation, please feel free to contact us at:

Phone: (302) 648-AKPT

Email: matsucommunityclinic@alaskapt.org

Website: www.aptaalaska.org/community-clinic/

